Oils, Fat Still Scarce; Plenty Of Other Foods

OTTAWA (CP)—A glimpse of the future through the eyes of Prices Board officials revealed that Canadians will have plenty of good things to eat for the next six months, but their diet won't comprise much in the line of rice, oils and fats.

Canned salmon will find its way to the grocery store shelves once again, but in certain parts of Canada there may be some difficulty buying the family's Christmas turkey. Chicken will remain plentiful.

Not only has Canada had bumper crops of nearly all kinds of fruit and vegetables, thus assuring fine packs of tinned goods, but prospects are that still further supplies this year will be imported from the United States.

Prices Board officials said sugar will not be off the ration list for at least year. However, they predicted a possible increase next February or May.

On the gloomier side of the picture they said Canadians may have to take a slight cut in their butter ration this winter, although every effort will be made to hold it at six ounces. The possible cut would be the result of a fall in milk production.

Another dark spot on the food picture is the shortage of oils and fats, to be even more acute this winter. It may be 10 months before anything like a normal supply of edible oils for shortening will be available.

In addition, Canadian hog production has declined, which will result in less lard and shortening this winter.

Sloan Proposes Wage Boost For Copper Miners

VANCOUVER (CP)—Basis for settlement of the copper miners' strike at Granby and Britannia has been submitted to Harvey Murphy, president of the International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers, representing the men, and C. H. Locke, K.C., for the copper mining companies, by Chief Justice Gordon M.C. Sloan, commissioner in the hard rock mines' dispute.

In his proposals, the Chief Justice said:

"Negotiations between the parties to the metalliferous mining dispute having reached an impasse, I consider it incumbent upon me as commissioner to formulate recommendations by which, if acceptable, the strike may be determined. To this end, therefore, and in sole relation to the copper producing companies I make the following recommendations:

"When these (the proposed increases) are added the following results appear:

"Miners' proposed rate $7.51 per shift or 93.8 cents per hour add overtime average approximately .30 per shift or 3.7 per hour add shift differential average approximately 21 cents per shift or 2.6 cents per hour.

"Total miners' earnings $8.02 per shift or 100.1 cents per hour. "I would be pleased if the representatives of both groups advise me by 5 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 16, whether or not these recommendations are acceptable.

"I expect to make recommendations shortly which I hope may lead to a settlement of the dispute as it affects the gold producing companies."

Back In England

LONDON (CP)—The Duke and Duchess of Windsor were back in England together today for the first time since 1939. They expect to spend a month visiting before going to the United States.

The Duke and Duchess, who arrived late Friday from Paris, are guests at the picturesque Sunningdale estate of their friend, Lord Dudley, near famous Epsom Downs.

"We are staying here until Nov. 6, when we leave, I hope, for the United States," the 52-year-old Duke told reporters.

U.S. Will Back Transfer Of 200,000 Magyars To Hungary

PARIS (AP)—Lt. Gen. Walter B. Smith told the Peace Conference today the United States was ready to back the transfer of some Magyar-populated areas of Czechoslovakia to defeated Hungary if necessary.

Smith, United States Ambassador to Russia, said his country would support Czechoslovakia's compromise proposal to transfer 200,000 Magyars from Czech territory to Hungary through a bilateral agreement.

"Every effort should be made," Gen. Smith declared, "through minor territorial changes if necessary, to reduce to the minimum the number of people forced to leave their ancestral homes under such an agreement."

Gen. Smith's statement was sandwiched between a string of Slav speeches which opened plenary session debate on the peace pact for Hungary—the fourth of five treaties to be considered. Slav delegates urged Hungary to join more solidly with the Slav-Danubian group of states.

The United States insisted that any transfer of Hungarians from Czechoslovakia be voluntary and by bilateral agreement, Gen. Smith said, and would be watching to see that it was carried out with "restraint."

Once Hungary is dealt with, only the treaty with Finland will remain to be read, threshed out and approved before the full conference can turn five treaty texts over to the Big Four Foreign Ministers for final action.

Illinoisans Get Unexpected Dinners

AURORA, Ill. (AP)—Residents of the Wilder Street neighborhood who are suffering from the meat shortage got some unexpected relief from the skies.

During the evening, there was a sudden noise and ducks began fluttering to the ground by the dozen, some of them injured. Startled residents bagged five of them before they could recover their equilibrium.

It was believed the flock flew too low and, blinded by lights, became entangled in telephone and power lines.

B.C. Makes Plans For Better Deal On Freight Rates

British Columbia today made plans for a full-scale war against unequal freight rates and possibly against the proposed 30 per cent increase in rail freight rates asked by the railway companies of Canada.

Premier John Hart announced today that C. H. Locke, K.C., of the firm of Locke, Lane, Guild and Sheppard of Vancouver, as counsel to represent the B.C. government in the presentation of the province's case for equalization for freight rates, and any objections the government may wish to make in connection with the recent application of the railway companies for a 30 per cent increase in railway freight rates.

The Premier's announcement described Mr. Locke as one of British Columbia's most outstanding lawyers.

"This is another step in the provincial government's fight to secure an equalization of freight rates involving the abolition of mountain rates which have long been a bone of contention in so far as western manufacturers and agricultural producers are concerned," the announcement said.

Mr. Hart added that for some time the Bureau of Economics, branch of the trade and industry department of the province under the direction of Neil Perry, economic adviser to the government, had been studying the freight rate equalization question and preparing the necessary information.

"Mr. Perry and his staff will continue to work in collaboration with Mr. Locke in the preparation of the case," said the Premier.

Friday, Mr. Hart telegraphed Col. James Albert Cross, K.C., chief commissioner of the Board of Transport in Ottawa, asking that in connection with the application from the railway companies for an increase in freight rates that no consideration be given the application for increase in rates until such time as the whole question of equalization of rates has been considered and dealt with by the board.

The Premier also in his telegram to Col. Cross said that the government of B.C. wished to be represented at the hearings, and asked to be advised as to the date when the hearings would start.

Mr. Locke has had a wide experience in the legal profession and has been highly recommended to the specific purpose of presenting B.C.'s freight rate case in view of his wide knowledge of matters pertaining to commerce and external trade with which the freight rate question is so intricately bound, said the Premier's announcement.

Previously Premier Hart had consulted with the three western premiers so that there could be unanimity of action on the question of freight rate equalization.

B.C. To Take Over 2 B.C.E.R. Plants

The B.C. Power Commission, provincially-owned power production and distribution enterprise with $20,000,000 government capital backing, will expropriate the properties of the B.C. Electric Railway Co. Ltd. at Port Alberni and Kamloops next Jan. 1, it was learned today.

The commission has already planned to bring power from its 50,000-horsepower initial development at Campbell River, expected to be in production in 1947, into Port Alberni. Bloedel, Stewart and Welch Ltd. has contracted for 10,000 horsepower for a pulp mill at Alberni.

Government approval of the proposed expropriation is expected to be given next Tuesday. The commission, it is understood, will operate all power production and distribution systems on Vancouver Island outside of the Greater Victoria area.

In Kamloops power production plants were taken over by the B.C. Electric 16 years ago.

Employers Not Sure Of Issues As 12,000 Bushworkers Strike

TORONTO (CP)—A strike which may affect all bush operations in the vast northern Ontario districts of Cochrane and Thunder Bay and stretch down into Algoma began at midnight.

So far it is not known how many of the 12,000 men employed in camps in the districts have joined the walkout. Sources here said this may not be known until next week because of lack of communications with most of the camps, in remote areas.

W. A. Delahaye, of the Ontario

Forest Industries Association, speaking for the operators, said today the employers are not certain of the issues. He said that in the northeastern part of northern Ontario—the Cochrane district—the union had not presented its demands to any of the companies.

WAGE PROPOSALS

Earlier this week a spokesman for the Lumber and Sawmill Workers' Union (A.F.L.) said the men wanted a $5 a day minimum wage, union recognition and improved living and working conditions.

Dr. Delahaye said wages were based largely on piece work rates and that an average workman made $7 a day, with the more skilled men making up to $10.

He said the companies had planned to have 20,000 men in the bush in the next few weeks, with winter operations just ready to hit their stride.

In calling the strike, the union rejected an appeal from Labor Minister Daley for a postponement pending mediation by a conciliator from his department.

NEWSPRINT OUTLOOK

It is believed here that the halt in pulpwood cutting, chief job in most of the affected camps, may not be felt in terms of newsprint production until next year. Newsprint and pulp mills normally have enough pulpwood on hand to carry them through winter operations.

Plane Crash Fatal To 16 In Morocco

RABAT, Morocco (AP)—Eleven passengers and five crew members were killed when an Air France plane crashed near Sefrou, Morocco, Thursday night and burst into flames.

Reports received here today said the plane, a JU-52, hit a hillside while flying in a fog. There were no survivors.

Among those killed was Carlin C. Treat, 26, newly-appointed U.S. vice-consul at Casablanca.

Reward Diverted

VANCOUVER (CP)—The Vancouver Police Commission has refused to pass on a cheque for $25 from a citizen who wished to reward the two constables who retrieved his stolen automobile. Mayor J. W. Cornett said that a policeman is supposed to carry on his duties without any special tips or rewards and termed the practice for rewarding officers "a dangerous precedent." The money has been routed to the Police Mutual Benevolent Fund.

Expert To Study Possibilities Of Consolidation

Premier John Hart today announced appointment of Dr. E. A. Cleveland, chief commissioner of Vancouver Joint Water and Sewerage Board, to make a survey of the whole water supply and distribution situation on southern Vancouver Island.

"It is felt, therefore, that, perhaps through a joint water board, consolidation of the systems not only could be brought about but a better approach made to solution of the future requirements of the whole area," the Premier's announcement said.

"Dr. Cleveland will go into all aspects of this situation and, apart from making an independent survey of a technical nature, will undoubtedly hear the representations from various municipal organizations and community groups so that he may learn at first hand the wishes of those whom the water supply will serve," said Premier Hart's announcement. "He is ready to undertake this work in the very near future."

COMMON GROUND SOUGHT

"For some years the question of supplying water to not only the Greater Victoria area but territory contiguous thereto has been the subject of considerable debate," the Premier's statement continued. "It has been felt by many that a joint effort would bring about an improved water supply system but no common ground for agreement could be reached."

The government had been asked to undertake an examination of the question by a delegation which recently met the provincial cabinet. In the past various districts, seeking to secure more adequate supply, have considered various proposals.

The Premier's announcement said it was thought that before independent action was taken more thought should be given to a consolidation of the present systems and water supplies.

Dr. Cleveland is an authority on water supply engineering on this continent. A graduate of the George Washington University, Washington, D.C., he was engaged in general engineering and surveying in B.C. before the turn of the century. He is a member of the Canadian Society of Civil Engineers, American Institute of Mining Engineers, president of the Engineering Institute of Canada and has won distinction for his knowledge on water supply and sewage disposal.

He also served for some time as controller of water rights for the provincial government. He is familiar with the supply of water to Greater Victoria.

Condemned Nazis Say Farewell To Wives; All Showing Strain

NUERNBERG (AP)—Col. Gen. Alfred Jodl, sentenced to die on the gallows as a war criminal next week, bade his wife farewell in his tiny cell today.

Capt. Sam Binder of Woodbine, Iowa, a security officer of the Palace of Justice jail, told reporters that Hitler's former chief of staff, wearing the red-striped trousers and dress coat of a Prussian officer, was calm and fearless during the hour-long visit.

Frau Jodl probably told her husband that his plea for clemency, like all others from the 11 doomed Nazis, had been denied by the Allied Control Council in Berlin. Officials here have been unable to tell the prisoners so because they have not been advised officially.

Most of the condemned Nazis have seen their wives for the last time. Strain is showing on all of them now. Their reactions are taking peculiar twists.

Rudolf Hess, Hitler's one-time deputy, facing a life term, talks of organizing another Reich. He has mentioned this several times to prison doctors.

Julius Streicher, Jew baiter, asked a psychologist to visit all the others who must hang and tell him how they were taking the approach of death. Hans Frank, once Governor of Poland, greets his doctor daily with: "How are you feeling?"

Wilhelm Frick, who was "protector" of Bohemia and Moravia, has concluded that "all is finished and there isn't much use in waiting around." Fritz Sauckel, former labor boss, has cracked wide open and doesn't seem to realize the trial is ended.

Field Marshal Wilhelm Keitel, former Chief of the General Staff, sleeps well.

Alfred Rosenberg, Nazi philosopher, constantly paces his cell.

To Be Photographed

NUERNBERG (AP)—Col. George Eyster, public relations officer for the U.S. forces in Europe, said today that only an official photographer would be allowed to take pictures of the Nazi executions next week and these would be for "historical and record purposes only."

This suggested that newspapers would be denied prints and that the public might never see the photographs.

France Likely To Approve New Constitution Despite Warnings

PARIS (AP)—Most observers predicted today that France would approve the proposed new French constitution in tomorrow's referendum despite Gen. Charles de Gaulle's grim warning that it would imperil the nation's future.

A few analysts felt, however, that Gen. de Gaulle's opposition to the new basic law drafted for the Fourth Republic—the second attempt this year—has given the referendum such an aspect of a plebiscite on his behalf that the result could not be foretold.

The majority predictions were based on the assumption that the voters would hew closely to party lines. If this should prove to be completely true, the charter would be adopted by 15,000,000 "yes" votes, against 5,000,000 "no" ballots.

This calculation is based on last June's elections, in which the Communists, Socialists and

150 Financial Chiefs Of Washington State Convene Here

Representing approximately $200,000,000 in assets, executive officers of the thrift and home financing institutions composing the Washington State Savings and Loan League arrived in Victoria today from across the border, for their organization's annual convention which is being held in the Empress Hotel.

RICHARD H. SHORETT

League president, Richard H. Shorett of Seattle who will preside over the four-day sessions, said outstanding national leaders in home financing from Washington, D.C., Chicago and other leading U.S. cities will be among the speakers here. He said the program will centre largely on methods to make easily available to the American public for residential construction the record-breaking amount of savings found in savings and loan associations in the United States.

"As perhaps the people of Canada as well as of the United States realize, an outstanding need in our country is for more homes," said President Shorett. "This presents a requirement for private financing as well as for materials and the other elements of construction."

"People in U.S. put more new money into our savings and loan associations the first half of this year than anyone in the business can remember their ever doing before in a similar period. Records of our United States Savings and Loan League show an inflow of savings to our institutions amounting to $1,563,000,000 from January through last June. That figure is in excess of the amount received for the entire year of 1943 or for any of the nine preceding years."

"At Victoria, our state league will receive counsel and advice from high governmental authorities and our own institution's national leaders as to how best to channel this large reservoir of funds into the building of homes."

SPEAK ON G.I. LOANS
H. J. Hoffman, supervising loan guarantee officer for the Pacific Northwest district of the U.S. Veterans' Administration, will speak on G.I. loans at the first business session Monday.

The principal speaker at the convention banquet Monday will be Ormund Loomis, executive assistant to the commissioner, Federal Home Loan Bank Administration, who will come to Victoria from Washington, D.C. for that purpose.

"As our combined statements at the end of last year showed the people of Washington State alone have placed $154,792,956 in savings in our associations, an increase of $26,845,648 for the last year, the savings aspect of our business will be discussed by Robert T. Souter, assistant vice-president of the United States Savings and Loan League, head-

Urge Liquor Revenue To Cut Milk Price

The Victoria branch of the Labor-Progressive Party will circulate among the citizens of Victoria a petition asking support to the party's campaign to have the provincial government lower the price of milk through payment of subsidies.

The letter, urging the province to take over the Dominion government's producer milk subsidy which ended Sept. 30, suggested the $8,000,000 liquor profits of 1945 should be considered as a partial means of financing the proposed milk subsidy.

Another letter to Premier Hart suggested that 150 Normal School students be transferred to the Victoria College building while the 600 college students occupy the Normal School building until such time as an adequate building, free from fire hazards, is available.

TOKYO (AP)—Union spokesmen said today that 59,987 coal miners were out on the third day of a nation-wide strike for a 25 per cent wage increase. This represented a gain of nearly 10,000
in the number of strikers since Friday.

Wisner's Letter On Raid Accepted

VANCOUVER (CP)—Controversy about who ordered a raid
by Vancouver city police on a luxurious Howe Street gambling house Sept. 18 apparently ended Friday when the police commissioner accepted as "satisfactory" a letter from Attorney-General Gordon Wisner.

The Attorney-General's letter revealed he had sent Deputy Commissioner Shirras of the Provincial Police to Vancouver armed with information about the gambling house with instructions it must be closed. The deputy commissioner had consulted Police Chief Alex McNeill and the raid was made.

The letter told of complaints that two Vancouver citizens had lost some $50,000 in the gambling house.

The police commission began investigating the matter when the Attorney-General announced
following the raid that the gambling house had been closed on his instructions.

In his letter the Attorney-General offered assistance in law enforcement in Vancouver if the need ever should arise and the police commission decided to accept his offer.

High School Auditorium Nears Completion At Lake Cowichan

DUNCAN—An official opening ceremony is planned for the $46,000 auditorium for Cowichan
Lake High School when it is completed late in November.

Work on the auditorium started in mid-April and has progressed steadily since then, the only shortages encountered being lack of nails and piping. The structure is 126 by 62 feet, and will contain basketball and badminton courts, seating accommodation for between 400 and 500 persons, a 30 by 27-foot stage, a balcony and dressing and cloakrooms. It will be hot-water heated.

Originally intended to be an auditorium and boilerroom in the two-story high school, two rooms have been converted into a project room and a commercial room where typewriting instruction will take place when supplies are received.

Additions planned for the school include a concrete boiler building with sufficient room for two boilers and a hot-water heating plant, which will be built at a cost of approximately $9,600,

and a home economics building which will be connected to the auditorium. The home economics building, it is estimated, will cost approximately $25,000.

Lake Community Continues Growth

LAKE COWICHAN—Opening of a branch of the Bank of Toronto at Lake Cowichan this week marked another step in the expansion of the growing community.

The bank branch opened in a former real estate office near Riverside Inn. It is reported a suitable building for the branch will be constructed soon.

Lake Cowichan has asked the provincial government for a liquor store in the town, but B.C.
Liquor Commissioner William Kennedy said in Victoria no decision has been reached regarding action on the request.

The community now has almost all the stores and institutions required for the service of a full-fledged town.

High School Site Chosen For Alberni

PORT ALBERNI—The Alberni
District School Board has placed a deposit on a 23-acre site for a new junior-senior high school. A plebiscite on raising funds for the construction of the school will be held this winter.

Preliminary plans for the school call for 32 rooms, an auditorium, gymnasium and swimming pool. The Alberni district arena will be built adjacent to the school grounds, and it is also hoped to have parking built in the neighborhood, with the assistance of the service clubs.

The school will serve the whole Alberni Valley as far as Kildonan
on the Alberni Canal.
Hubert Savage, Victoria, is architect for the new school and is now preparing the plans.

Cowichan Fish-Game Group Recommends 25 Grilse Limit

DUNCAN—Cowichan Fish and Game Association, meeting this week, asked the Fisheries Department to place a limit of 25 per day on grilse.

Members pointed to the heavy kill, noting catches of 100 to 120
a day by some persons this year.
Annual banquet will be held on or about Dec. 12 when Dr. G. C.
Carl, Victoria, will be the guest speaker.

The association has approved a new agreement with the Indians
which governs the rights of members fishing and hunting on Indian lands under the Indian re-

June Bug Control Sought At Station

Experiments in soil fumigation
for the control of the larvae of the June beetle on the lighter strawberry soils of Saanich are under way at the Dominion Experimental Station, Saanichton.

H. J. Kemp, in charge of machinery development, has made equipment so that the material used for fumigation can be placed directly into the contaminated soil at the time of plowing. The equipment is simple and consists of a 10-gallon tank fitted with connecting tubes and pipelines leading directly into the plow furrow.

Dr. K. M. King of the Dominion Entomological Laboratory, Victoria, is co-operating in the experiment to rid Saanich soils of this pest and others causing heavy losses.

The larvae of the June beetle
find young strawberry roots highly palatable and in certain areas are so bad that strawberry growers cannot economically complete against their ravages.

Fir 9 Feet Through Felled Near Duncan

DUNCAN—A Douglas fir nine feet in diameter at the base, believed to be the last giant tree in the Duncan area, is now to be sawn into enough lumber
for two four or five-room houses.

Felled at the Harry Martin
logging operation on Fairbridge Farm School property, the tree provided six 24-foot logs which scaled 21,000 feet of lumber, and it was believed lumber from all the logs will be Grade No. 1.
However, even if some of the lumber is of a poorer grade, and the average price at which it is sold is only $30 a thousand,
it will bring $630.

A power saw was used to fell the forest giant, taking four and a half hours to complete the felling and the first bucking cut.

Many Will Attend I.O.D.E. Convention

NANAIMO—Arrangements
have been completed for the semi-annual provincial convention of the Imperial Order, Daughters of the Empire, which will be held in Nanaimo next Wednesday and Thursday.

The convention will open with a formal dinner Wednesday evening at the Plaza Hotel. Thursday's proceedings will be highlighted by a luncheon at the Plaza, a service at the Cenotaph
and a closing tea in the Eagles Hall.

Regents and standard-bearers
of most chapters of the I.O.D.E.
on Vancouver Island will be present at the convention, including the representatives of more than 16 chapters in Victoria alone.

4 Island Jerseys High Milk Producers

The Canadian Jersey Cattle
Club in Toronto has announced
four Vancouver Island Jersey cows have set records.

Two of the cattle, owned by Colin C. Martin, Victoria, set records in the two-year-old group for 365-day milking. They are Laurium Favorite Barbara—152-636 — bred by Miss Grace E.
Moses, Sidney, which produced
8,133 pounds of milk and 472
pounds of butterfat with an average test of 5.80 per cent, and Laurium Oxford Beth, bred by Charles H. Laura, Sidney, which produced 7,507 pounds of milk and 450 pounds of fat with an average test of 5.99 per cent.

Also high in the two-year-old 365-day milking class was Rosemont Golden Bessie — 142942—
bred by E. W. Burkinshaw, Victoria, and owned and tested by Hon. W. C. Woodward, former British Columbia Lieutenant-Governor, on his farm at Brentwood. This Jersey produced 8-820 pounds of milk and 484
pounds of fat with an average test of 5.49 per cent.

The fourth Jersey setting a record is Blazetree Sultan's Cerise
—120605—bred by G. W. Hooper, Hillbank, and owned and tested
by Fairmeade Farms Limited, Milner, which set a five-year-old record of 10,292 pounds of milk containing 600 pounds of fat in 365 days with an average test of 5.83 per cent.

To Evacuate Island

SUVA, Fiji Islands (AP)—The
1,300 persons on Nuafofo Island to the northeast, rocked by quakes and volcanic eruptions last month, will be removed in fear of a final and violent upheaval, it was announced Friday.

The population will be taken by ship to the Vavau group in the Tonga Islands, southeast of Nuafofo. The population had declared its intention of staying,
but continued earthquakes and volcanic activity caused authorities to decide to clear the island.

B.N.A. Act Overhaul Said Long Overdue

REGINA (CP)—Attorney-General J. W. Corman of Saskatchewan said Friday night an overhaul of the British North America Act is "long overdue" and is under consideration now.

In a radio speech, Mr. Corman discussed the Saskatchewan Farm Security Act, which will be tested before the Supreme Court of Canada next Tuesday.

"If a province has not the right now to pass laws dealing with farm debt as related to crop conditions in the province, then the B.N.A. Act should be amended to give it that right and power," Mr. Corman said.

He said general laws passed by the Dominion could not meet problems which existed in Saskatchewan in the 1930s.

Referring to the Saskatchewan
Minimum Wage Act and Holidays with Pay Act, the validity of which are being contested by the Canadian National and Canadian Pacific Railway, Mr. Corman said the "province contends that conditions of employment within the province are local matters related to civil rights and are by the B.N.A. Act vested in provincial legislatures."

FREIGHT RATES AGAIN

FEW WILL BE SURPRISED BY THE application of the Railway Association of Canada for an increase of 30 per cent in freight rates. The transportation companies are conforming to the general pattern of the times. Like every other type of industry, whether it involves skilled or unskilled labor, the members of the organization in question are facing the problem of ever-advancing operating costs. Beginning with the weekly wage paid to the junior clerk, right on up to the price demanded for the production of rolling stock, the trend is uniformly upward. What had been expected from the railways, therefore, has now occurred. The reaction is beginning to manifest itself. Several provincial Premiers, numerous business leaders, and a public which is fully convinced that nothing like a 30 per cent advance is justified, have voiced their opposition to the application. Nor will this come as any surprise to the railways.

Not until he has had time to consider the general implication of this latest move on the part of the R.A.C., particularly as it involves the future economy of the province, will it be possible for Mr. Hart to outline the course which British Columbia is likely to pursue. It can be taken for granted, however, that he will argue that the whole railway freight structure of the Dominion should be re-examined in the light of present-day conditions—and before the application is seriously considered by the Board of Transport Commissioners. He will bear especially in mind, of course, the demand which successive governments of this part of Canada have made for equalization of rates—or the elimination of the mountain differential. Through the years, the taxpayers have willingly footed substantial bills of expense in a continued campaign against this discriminatory aspect of the present schedules; but no amount of legal argument or appeals to economic justice have had the desired result.

Apert from the inevitable objection which this province will lodge against the railways' application, however, it is by no means certain that Mr. Hart will be able to depend on much practical support for his protest from the three prairie provinces. The grain-producing areas obviously will object to any increase in carrying charges on general principles; but what stand, if any, they will take on the discriminatory factor which is British Columbia's ever-present bone of contention is highly problematical. Then again, there are interests, even within the province, that seem to blow hot and cold on the differential phase of the controversy. No matter from what standpoint the new development is viewed, therefore, the prospect of any increase in freight rates is far from encouraging for the business of this province.

PROMISE OF ABUNDANCE

IN HIS MESSAGE TO THE AMERICAN Federation of Labor in Chicago recently, President Truman won wide applause for his statement that: "Our demonstrated capacity holds out the promise of secure abundance for America's wage and salaried workers, as well as for our farmers and business and professional people."

These are the words of the President of the United States addressed to an organization of United States citizens and referring specifically to conditions in the United States. They could, however, have been equally as well addressed by a Canadian statesman to Canadians. The promise is there for all to see. Statistics and the unequivocal tributes of countless countries to Canada's industrial production during the war have proved the point conclusively in the Dominion. But it will be well for this country to understand that potentialities remain only potentialities until someone has translated them into actualities. And while the prospects are bright for production beyond pre-war imagining, that production will be of little value if it arrives too late to gain access to the markets which are now wide open.

We have repeated time and again the truism that goods-hungry nations will not wait indefinitely for the arrival of Canadian exports when competing nations are rushing to fill the needs of those clamoring for produce. To use a football metaphor, Canada now has the ball at her feet, and the goal is wide open; it is no time for fumbling. The close parallel between conditions in Canada and those in the United States is further underscored by another sentence from the President's message: "Today, no less than in wartime, our most compelling need is full, sustained production." That is the threshold over which this nation must pass if it is to achieve abundance, a goal to be reached by the "full co-operation of industry, labor and government."

How else can the foundation be laid for a continuing expansion of industry that spells economic security for the working man? How else can the welfare of labor, management and government be advanced but by joint effort?

The point of Mr. Truman's statement must have been especially appreciated by his American listeners. During January, February and March of this year they saw the results of strikes directly reflected in totals of 19,200,000, 21,500,000 and 14,000,000 idle man-days in their country. That compared to 1,400,000 in August of last year and had shrunk to 3,400,000 in August of 1946. The loss in production during those peak months of arbitrary work stoppage needs no elaboration. But its outcome should be apparent to labor and management in the Dominion. United States labor and management, having experimented unhappily with the rising wage-cost-price spiral, appears to have corrected a flaw in its economic reasoning. Production, according to last August's figures on man-day losses, is no longer being jeopardized by strikes to the extent it was in January, February and March.

A study of the comparison existing between the two countries north and south of the 49th parallel may be illuminating to forces in this country on which the responsibility for strikes rests. And the experience south of the border may well convince Canadians that further industrial disruption is too costly a course to pursue when the certain way to national well-being is increased production. The logic of President Truman on that point admits no contradiction.

AN ELECTION IS COMING

CITIZENS ENTITLED TO THE FRANCHISE are being placed on the civic voters list this month if they have not gained automatic registration. Those in doubt over their status are afforded the opportunity to have their position defined at the City Hall. The responsibility is theirs to ensure a ballot on polling day. That is an obligation of citizenship they can ignore only at their own risk.

There is, moreover, a complementary factor to be considered. The aspirant for civic office should start now on those preparations required before he can stand for office. Delay in this matter results in inconvenience to election officials and tends to minimize his chances of success.

The point is made specifically at this time because of the emphasis placed upon the call for younger men to lend their energies to the advancement of their city. The time ahead is one for vision and initiative, characteristics which are usually associated with the more pliable years before and in the early stages of middle age.

It must be abundantly clear to qualified citizens that they have little ground for complaint against any administration that is elected if they have not either stood for office themselves or sponsored other suitable candidates to represent them. The future of this city, of course, depends upon the attitude of those who live here. And at this stage of development, apathy should not be tolerated. The point is underscored not only in respect to the personnel which will direct municipal affairs, but in view of the important issues to be referred to the voters.

THE INTERNATIONAL FUND

IN THE HURLY-BURLY OF EVENTS circling round the Security Council, and policies of the "Big Four" in relation to the peace treaties, power politics and various domestic concerns, the establishment of the International Monetary Fund through the Bretton Woods Agreement has faded into the background as one means to help the world toward peace. It is noteworthy, therefore, that the nations signing the agreement have now received notice that the fund will shortly be in the position to begin exchange transactions and to "communicate within 30 days the par value" of their currencies.

These communications will have to be carefully analyzed and related to each other by the fund directors. The members will then start trading with each other on an established international exchange, with their currencies all related to the common denominator of gold—used merely as a measure of values, and not primarily as an exchange factor. That seems to be the simplest method of expressing an extremely complicated task.

Complexity naturally arises out of the difficulty of appraising in terms of the human factor the value of a pound of tea in relation to a bushel of wheat and, as nearly as possible, to stabilize that value and its relation to the exchange, for example, of the total Indian production of all goods to Canadian production and the trade of the nations who are members of the fund. The results of the International Trade Conference will thus be reflected in the monetary fund.

HAUL-UP TIME

SOME TEXTURE OF THE SHORT EVENINGS that close down early on the shore, some foreboding depth of blue in the Olympics across the Strait, tell the wary boatman the time has come to take his craft from its summer anchorage for winter's haul-up. He knows, if he has followed the seasons about this coast, that it is well past the equinox and gales may lash his mooring ground in sudden fury. The weather, like some great jungle cat, may hold its mien of contented languor yet awhile, but there is treachery in it, a changeability that may whip aside its benevolence and set its devil's screaming.

And so the treasured boat that rode the carefree tides of warm day cruises must find shelter. Willing hands will draw it from the sea, will ease it onto its land-bound cradle. There an owner's care will heal the casual wounds of summer's minor mishaps. Here a loosened shackle will be made fast, a shaky hand-hold replaced, a spread seam will be caulked and tightened. The sea growth that has fouled its bottom will be sloughed aside and the planking prepared for next spring's painting. Though it has finished its work for the year, the craft will not be neglected. It is an artist at rest between seasons, and affectionate hands will spare no effort to improve it for its next performance.

CONCERNING THE BARN

ANY BARN, I SUPPOSE, is better than none. A concrete barn full of blooded race horses may hold some of the original magic in a diluted form, poisoned by money. A cow barn on an eastern dairy farm is authentic enough and ancient in its tradition. But the truest architecture of the barn, its final flowering, its deep meaning in the life of Canada, can best be seen in the West.

To begin with, it must be made of logs. All else is imitation and decadence. It must be made of logs cut by the first settler's axe and cunningly joined at the corners, but the settler could not make it alone. Only time could make it. The barn must weather like a human face, for a new barn, all fresh and shiny, is like a new-born baby, without character. It must season slowly like wine. It must settle down into the earth and grow there like an old tree. Then, in due time, say half a century or so, when it gets some moss on it, when poplars have spread around it to whisper together over the roof and make a cool shade in the summer days, when man and animal have left the marks of living in it, then the barn may be considered complete, no longer a detached and temporary erection but a living thing, part of the earth's life, a vast and friendly flower ripening in the sun.

BY THIS TIME it will have acquired a personal experience and history of its own. The discarded chaps of cowboys will hang forgotten on a peg. There will be a fine accumulation of old saddles which no one uses but which no one will ever throw out, together with bridles and lariats, and perhaps an old six-shooter that grandfather used to carry, and bottles of liniment carefully laid aside by a ranch hand long since dead. The floor will be well grooved by horse shoes, the mangers gnawed, the door of the box stall kicked and splintered by the stallion. There will be over all a perfume unique and inimitable and that loveliest sound of all nature, the trampling of hooves in the darkness and the thoughtful grinding of horses' clean teeth on new hay.

ALL THE MARKS of men's swift passage as nowhere else, in the barn. Larger monuments may be built of stone, lofty towers and swarming cities, but man is forgotten in them. He is remembered in the barn. The cut of his original axe is on the logs, the labor of his hands is in the bursting hayloft, and all the dreams of the pioneer in a lonely land, all the hope and peril of the western life lives in the barn, which was its first habitation.

The house may change. New furniture and new gadgets may be added and the tolling ranch may be emancipated by electricity, by cosmetics, by soap operas on the radio and all the wonderful triumphs of science. But the barn does not change. When the old man escapes from the progress of the house he can recapture his youth for a moment in the barn. When the young man unsaddles his horse at dusk he is for a moment among the shadows of the past and among his ancestors, and knows what breed he sprang from, what toll went before him, and he sees the endurance and clean sanity of this western land.

THE BARN WAS built better than the house, and larger, and was the real centre of life in the West for it contained the animals and the food on which the West has always lived. The pioneer might deny himself almost everything, but his capital must be protected, his animals must be fed and shielded against the weather—the true and first capital, the essential stuff of the nation's life. All of it is still here, in the barn, and something more, something beyond the reckoning of the economists. Your barn is the habitation of democracy.

Under its bulging roof there lives an equality which can never be known in cities, the equality of men who must struggle with the primal facts of nature, who must depend on the crops of the soil, on its weather and on its other creatures. None can be neglected or forgotten. None can be hived off in the prison cells of apartment houses and drugged with the sounds, amusements and social conflicts of the city.

THE FARM IS A SINGLE organism, each part essential to the other, and each creature has his place, his status and his freedom. The Christian story, the first faint beginnings of democracy, were discovered in a barn. More clearly than anywhere else they survive here still.

'Witnesses Said'

From the Ottawa Citizen

A FEW DAYS ago newspapers everywhere carried front-page stories that a huge segment of the brink of Niagara Falls had collapsed with a terrific roar, shaking buildings on both sides of the Niagara River and changing the contour of the American falls.

According to an Associated Press account "witnesses said a section of the rock wall 120 feet in length at the top and about 30 feet across the bottom of the falls tumbled into the gorge." A news photographer was cited as saying that he had taken air views of the falls that morning, and that "apparently a section of the American side had fallen in." Subsequently news photos were released carefully marking the break.

Now it appears that although these stories were written and published in all good faith, the huge chunk of rock just didn't break off, and beyond normal wear and tear the falls are as intact as they were before. If this verdict is correct, the world has been provided with a memorable case of jumping to conclusions on a mass scale.

City Council Again Rejects By-Law To Close Fish Stores

The by-law requiring Victoria fish stores to close all day Wednesday was again lost on a reconsideration of second reading by one vote at a special meeting of the City Council Friday.

The meeting was called, Mayor Percy George explained, at the request of Ald. W. L. Morgan, who was sponsoring the by-law, and who had been absent at the previous special meeting Monday when it was defeated on second reading.

Mayor George pointed out to the council that the amendment to the Shops Regulation and Weekly Half-holiday Act, which permitted the all-day Wednesday closing to be implemented, was initiated by the Victoria City Council at the 1945 convention of the Union of B.C. Municipalities. "We spoke for it, won the support of the convention, and at the request of the U.B.C.M., the government passed the amendment," the mayor said.

He also stressed the similarity between fish and butcher shops and contended that the City Council, which had, in good faith passed a by-law allowing butcher stores to close, should be consistent and pass the fish store by-law, too.

He insisted, that although the butcher closing by-law has since been declared ultra vires, the aldermen in passing it had not known they were out of order.

Ald. W. L. Morgan spoke the full 15 minutes allotted him from prepared notes, charging that the Monday meeting of the council had been delayed 15 minutes to allow the opposition to the by-law to arrive in full strength "while I, through no fault of my own, was unable to support it in council although the by-law stood in my name." He insisted that if the vote had been six to three, as it would have been if the meeting had gone on time, it would have passed.

He also declared that for the council to refuse the fish stores their by-law would be "rank discrimination," stressing that past experience had shown that no voluntary system of closing could control the small minority who, by unfair competition, were prepared to keep their shops open at all hours of the day and night.

CLOSE BY SECTIONS

Ald. J. D. Hunter, supported by Ald. Margaret D. Christie suggested that the stores be divided into sections, one section closing one day in the week, and the other section another day, thus ensuring that some stores will be open every week day and "the town will not be shut down."

Ald. Edward Williams renewed his plea for support for the by-law, saying he was not concerned with the wishes of the large chain or department stores, whose owners did none of the work and were not local residents. "I'm concerned with our local man, who has invested his money, time and work here and who works in his own store—his wishes are the ones we should consider," Ald. Williams declared.

On the vote, Mayor George, Ald. Williams, Ald. J. A. Worthington, Ald. D. D. McTavish, Ald. F. G. Mulliner, Ald. R. C. A. Dewar and Ald. W. L. Morgan voted in favor of the by-law, and Ald. B. J. Gadsden, Ald. H. M. Diggon, Ald. Hunter and Ald. Christie opposed it. It takes eight votes to carry a by-law on second reading when full council is in attendance.

Lila Grieve Bride In Quiet Ceremony

Miss Lila Agnes Grieve, second daughter of Mrs. G. Sutherland, 1726 Carrick Street, and the late Herbert Grieve Sandwick, became the bride of Royden Keith Buchan, Vancouver, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Buchan, Winnipeg, Man., Friday evening in a quiet ceremony performed at the home of the officiating minister, Rev. Thomas Menzies.

A turquoise blue afternoon dress, styled with V-neckline, low fitted waist and scalloped front peplum was chosen by the bride, who was given in marriage by Gordon Sutherland. She wore a matching beauty cap with ostrich trim and carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and gardenias.

Miss Doreen Nute, the attendant, was gowned in a grey crepe frock with wine trim and matching bandeau of flowers. Her colonial bouquet was of mixed flowers. Charles Crosson was groomsmen.

A reception followed at the Sutherland residence, where mothers of the young couple assisted in receiving guests. W. G. Robson proposed the bride's toast.

For their honeymoon trip to Seattle and Wenatchee, Mrs. Buchan wore a pale green wool dress, chocolate brown coat with wolf collar, brown hat, brown alligator accessories and corsage bouquet of gardenias. The young couple will reside in Vancouver.

St. Michael's School old boy, also a former student of Oak Bay High and Victoria College, went overseas in 1941 with an anti-aircraft battalion from Prince Edward Island and saw service in Italy, North Africa and Holland. He married an English girl and returned to Canada with his family just a month ago. Since then he has been visiting his mother in Prince Edward Island.

Hon. Gordon S. Wismer, Attorney-General of British Columbia, and Mrs. Wismer motored to Nanaimo yesterday where they will take the boat for Vancouver this morning en route to Harrison Hot Springs to spend Thanksgiving week-end.

New Chemist At Saanich Observatory

Mr. Eugene Lopatecki, who has had a varied and exciting career since his graduation from the University of British Columbia in 1938 in bacteriology and soil chemistry, has recently been appointed chemist at the Dominion laboratory of plant pathology, Saanichton.

Employed as a technical agriculturist on a rubber plantation in Malaya when the Japanese sought to establish their new order in the Far East, Mr. Lopatecki spent three years in a concentration camp in Sumatra. On his release after V.J. Day he proceeded to England, where he married a British army nurse who had been interned in the same camp as he.

Under the direction of Dr. Wm.
Newton, officer-in-charge of the laboratory, Mr. Lopatecki will be responsible for special research work dealing with the chemistry of plant diseases and related work.

War Risk Insurance Premiums Refunded

VANCOUVER (CP)—The Dominion government is refunding
almost half the $7,800,000 paid
by Canadians for war risk insurance between 1942 and 1944, and almost one-third of the rebate
will be received by private property owners and businesses in British Columbia, it was learned here. A refund of $16,100 already has been made to the city of Vancouver on $34,000 paid out.

Funeral Today Of Colorful Figure

Many of his friends attended the funeral this afternoon of Thomas Wilson, well-known in Victoria, who died last Tuesday at Jubilee Hospital after a colorful life which began in British Columbia when he arrived from England by sailing ship around Cape Horn in January, 1888.

The funeral service was held in McCall Brothers' Funeral Chapel
with interment at Colwood Burial Park. Archdeacon A. F. de L.
Nunns officiated.

Death came to "Tom" Wilson
in his 78th year, the last 26 years of which he had spent in Victoria.
His widow survives him at the family residence, 2364 Oak Bay Avenue. It was at Victoria he disembarked from the old sailing ship which brought him to Canada in six months from Great Britain.

But he did not remain here,
going to Nanaimo where he worked in the coal mines for 10 years as overseer of haulage and coal digging.

In the spring of 1897 he went to the Yukon and in the following year visited London, returning to Canada in the spring of
'98. The same year he led an expedition for a London company up the Stewart River after which he took up mining and prospecting in various parts of the province.

In 1900 he went on an exploring expedition to West Africa,
but his love for B.C. brought him back in 1902, when he again followed prospecting and mining until 1915.

He served in the First Great War going in 1915 to the western front. He was there when the armistice was called.

Early in 1920, after receiving discharge from the army in 1919,
he was a member of a government party sent to the Taseko Valley in the Lillooet district to prospect and mine.

Sam Watson, British Labor Party executive member, speaks in Victoria, Oct. 29. Keep this date open!

Sports Mirror

By PETE SALLAWAY

BASKETBALL teams are set to pry the lid off another season Wednesday and the High School gym promises to be a busy spot during the winter. Just how the officials plan to provide all teams with sufficient play, using only the one gym is hard to figure out. It is unfortunate more playing quarters are not available. However, the big worry is just where a possible Canadian championship series can be put on. With another great team lined up, Dominos will be heavy favorites to retain their western Canada title and the right to defend the national crown they won so easily in Windsor last spring.

CHATTING to Dave Nicol, veteran mentor of the Victoria club, recently, he said in a joking way: "Would be too bad if we had to play the series in Vancouver." There might be more truth than fiction in such a statement. Only possible scene for a national final is the main building at the Willows and that has been closed down with the electricity turned off. Owing to the great amount of alterations required to make the structure meet the requirements as laid down by Oak Bay Fire Chief Ed Clayards it is not likely that building can ever be used. So the basketballers have a real headache and one that is going to get worse as the season rolls along and a possible Canadian playoff looms in the offing.

VARSITY Thunderbirds will have one smart squad to defend provincial rugby honors represented by the McKechie Cup this season. Roy Haines, a former Victoria boy, has taken over as head coach of the rugged clubs at U.B.C. and has about 50 players turning out three times a week as he moulds the latest edition. Five of last year's forwards will be back in action. A cinch to make the Varsity will be Russ Latham, Victoria College and Crimson Tide star of last season. Buddy Lott, another ex-college performer, will handle the scrum half position with the U.B.C. second squad.

BERT WETHERALL, long associated with junior and juvenile football teams in Victoria, wants to see Victoria United, local entry in the Coast League, perform in an exhibition game against a hand-picked team with the proceeds to be turned over to the youngsters. "The game could be played on a Sunday and I feel confident it would attract a big crowd," Wetherall said. Wetherall then turned over a line-up which he figured would give the United a tough game. Here it is: Goal, Wally Rowe; fullbacks, Chuck Restell and Eddie DeCosta; halfbacks, Cliff Robbins, Joe Robbins and D. Popham; forwards, Harry Barber, Roy Okell, Jack Okell, Art Young and Earl Barnswell; spares, Ronnie Webster, Dick Donaghy and Ken Druce.

Paul's Background and Early Life

Scripture: Acts 21:39; 22:3, 27-28; 26:45; Philippians 3:5-6.

By WILLIAM E. GILROY, D.D.

The life of the apostle Paul is a notable case history of the power and effect of early training.

It is true that Paul's outlook and convictions in the mature years following his conversion were very different from those of his youth—so much so that he was persecuted for his supposed heresy by the same people whom he had formerly joined in persecuting the Christians. But Paul answered his persecutors by insisting that he worshipped the God of his fathers.

The only thing that characterized his life, both before and after his conversion, was a good conscience. In his persecuting days he thought he was doing God service, just as he did in the days of his enlightenment, when service had become inspired with love and devotion to Christ.

Paul evidently owed a great heritage to the parents whose God he worshipped. And he owed a great deal to Gamaliel, the teacher at whose feet he sat in Jerusalem, for Gamaliel appears in Scripture as a tolerant and justice-loving Jewish leader.

How much Paul owed to his boyhood life in Tarsus we can only surmise. It was also a seaport town through which much trade and commerce passed, with a mixed population and the heterogeneous visitors that trade and commerce bring to a seaport.

Paul's early contacts probably had to prepare him for that cosmopolitan character he was to assume as a Christian citizen of the world, aspiring to preach the Gospel in every quarter of the then-known world.

He had, too, the training of the Synagogue, with its school and its Sabbath service. He, like the

Ogden Point Docks Under Discussion By C.N.R., Says Walton

Canadian National Railways now has the question of Ogden Point docks under discussion, but no plans have yet been completed for changes at the docks, Norman B. Walton, C.B.E., C.N.R. executive vice-president, said today following his arrival here with W. R. Devenish, vice-president, western region, and four other C.N.R. officials.

No immediate plans were being made with regard to the inner harbor C.N.R. wharf, presently occupied by Island Tug and Barge Ltd.

However, Mr. Walton continued, the C.N.R. was anxious to see a good stream of business passing through Victoria, and the company would do anything it could, within reason, to promote that business.

C.N.R. movement in and out of Victoria was far greater than most people realized, he said, adding the C.N.R. valued its traffic to and from Victoria very greatly.

Questioned regarding construction of a second C.N.R. ship for this coast, Mr. Walton said the company believed one step at a time was about as far as it could go. The second ship was being planned, but no decision had as yet been reached.

LOOK OVER SHIPYARD

Yarrows Ltd., which is building $3,000,000 ship for B.C. coast passenger trade, had some of the material with which to construct the vessel, but time of completion of the vessel would depend a good deal on how soon orders for other materials were realized. He and the C.N.R. officials accompanying him were visiting Yarrows shipyard this afternoon, he said.

RATE QUESTION

With regard to the 30 per cent rate increase sought by the railways, Mr. Walton said if there was a percentage increase in other parts of the country, it would be hard to visualize what effect the increase, if granted, would have on grain shipments to B.C. ports.

Asked if the mountain differential was removed what effect it would have on grain shipments to the coast, Mr. Walton answered that, as the case had now been submitted to the Board of Transport Commissioners and Wartime Prices and Trade Board, he was loath to express himself on the matter.

The Canadian Wheat Board indicated what grain would be shipped and what its destination would be, and the C.N.R. moved its shipments according to instructions issued by the board, he said.

Messrs. Walton and Devenish are accompanied by three C.N.R. directors, B. L. Daly, Montreal; J. A. Northey, Toronto, and E. J. Young, Dummer, Sask., and W. T. Moodie, general superintendent, B.C., district, Vancouver.

Victorians Will Show Gratitude At Services In Churches Here

Victorians will offer prayers and hymns of gratitude in the city's churches Sunday.

Special sermons, music and decorations will mark Thanksgiving in most churches.

Monday morning an annual Thanksgiving service under the auspices of the Victoria Ministerial Association will be held in First Baptist Church at 11. The service will be conducted by the president, Rev. D. L. Gordon, Rev. G. R. Easter will assist and Rev. T. H. MacAllister will preach the sermon.

Many Victorians, however, if the weather continues clear, will take advantage of the fall sunshine and spend Thanksgiving Day in the country, and others will visit the mainland for the week-end.

Regular scheduled bus services will be maintained on island routes on Monday, with two or three small exceptions, for those who plan to spend the day outdoors.

Boats and trains also will provide regular service, and holiday fares will be in effect throughout the week-end on both C.P.R. and C.N.R.

City Council Wants Action On College

With the proviso that the special committee appointed by Premier John Hart act with speed to resolve the problem of accommodation for Victoria College, the City Council members appeared satisfied with the action taken when the joint delegation from the School Board and City Council appeared before the cabinet.

At the meeting of the committee of the whole Friday a resolution, sponsored by Ald. F. G. Mulliner said the council is "exercised over the serious condition of overcrowding at Victoria College and is greatly concerned that this condition has existed for several weeks and continues without any apparent steps being taken by the responsible authorities to remedy the situation."

Ald. H. M. Diggon, who as chairman of the fire wardens was at the cabinet meeting, said he believed Premier Hart was sincere in his attempt to find a solution to the problem, and that he would be prepared to give the special committee until Wednesday to get its recommendations in to the government.

Canada has contributed more than $100,000,000 to Unrra. He scored those Canadians who claimed government expenditures were too high.

Mr. Mayhew said production of peacetime goods in Canada was at an all-time high and that 1,000,000 more persons were employed in Canada now than in 1939.
